ROB MALLEY MUST RESIGN

HON. JOE WILSON

OF SOUTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 6, 2023

Mr. WILSON of South Carolina. Mr. Speaker it is outrageous for President Biden to waive sanctions on nonproliferation activities involving Iran, particularly in light of Iran's continued noncompliance with its Comprehensive Safeguards Agreement. Iran is racing towards a nuclear weapon while developing intercontinental ballistic missile technology and a wholesale crackdown on its own people, yet President Biden's Special Envoy for Iran, Rob Malley, will not stop in his absurd efforts to re-enter a failed nuclear agreement with the country. Iran has already threatened to vaporize Israel and deliver a nuclear attack on America.

Malley even told the BBC last week that President Biden "never said that the possibility of an understanding with Iran was dead. In fact, we have said the exact opposite time and time again."

It is obvious that the administration is showing weakness in confronting Iran which will put our ally Israel, and others in the region, in grave danger.

America will always stand with Israel. Rob Malley must resign immediately, and President Biden must end these concessions to Iran and return to a smart policy on Iran of maximum pressure on the regime while supporting the democratic aspirations of the people.

Mr. Malley's record both in government and outside of it is concerning. As former President of the NGO, International Crisis Group (ICG), Malley strongly advocated against President Trump's maximum pressure policies and for a weak foreign policy on Iran. Even worse, as StopAntisemitism.org reported this week, some of those previously associated with ICG have gone on to teach college courses calling Israel an apartheid state and refusing to acknowledge Israel's right to exist. This is sadly a threat to Israel and American families.

My concerns are still true for on the record comments I made warning Mr. Malley almost two years ago, on February 16, 2021, in an op-ed entitled "Failed Obama-era Policy Must Not Be Repeated" for InsideSources.com:

I am deeply concerned that we are returning to the failed policies of the Obama administration as President Biden establishes a team comprised of the same people whose work led to these problems in the first place: Robert Malley, Brett McGurk, and Colin Kahl. Robert Malley, Biden's choice for Special Envoy to Iran, has a history of troubling comments and policies regarding the Iranian Regime.

It was Malley who spearheaded Obama's failed policy of working with Iran in the region, including the failed Iran Nuclear Deal, turning a blind eye to Assad's atrocities, and working with Iranian militias in Iraq to fight ISIS. Malley's approach is backward as he believes in alienating our allies in the region Israel, Saudi Arabia, UAE, Qatar, Jordan, and Turkey, while strengthening our adversaries, Iran, the Assad regime, Hezbollah, and Houthi terrorists.

Malley argues his approach to Iran is rooted in diplomacy and preventing conflict, but his deal with Iran escalated regional tensions and increased resources available to terrorists.

May God provide his blessings for a free Iran. God bless our troops. God bless the United States of America.

HONORING THE LIFE OF DORA MARIE KNELL

HON. JARED HUFFMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 6, 2023

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in memory of Dora Marie Knell, who passed away at the age of 98 on December 19, 2022. Dora was a political activist in her community and a champion of women's rights.

Born in Sonoma County in 1924, Dora grew up in Guerneville, CA and attended Santa Rosa Junior College where she was the first woman elected student body president. She later earned her bachelor's degree in English and Journalism from UC Berkeley. Dora became a successful small business owner in Marin County, founding her own printing business, Copy Desk, in San Rafael and starting a publishing company, ETRI. In 1989, she sold her businesses and purchased several commercial properties, managing them herself.

A dedicated political activist and feminist, Dora was committed to increasing women's participation in the political process. She was a founding member of the National Woman's Political Caucus, an Emeritus Member of the Marin Woman's Political Action Committee and elected to serve two terms on the Marin Democratic Central Committee. In addition, she also served on the Marin County Grand Jury and the Marin County Housing-Family and Child Advisory Committee. Known for her vocal activism, Dora is remembered for speaking her mind and fighting for a healthy democracy.

Along with her hard work ethic and commitment to making a positive difference for others, Dora was known for her quick-witted humor, fierce determination, and generous spirit. While she will be greatly missed, her legacy will live on through the positive impact she has had on her community and beyond.

Dora is survived by her children Gregory, Catalaine, Theodora, Valerie, Vivian, Geoffrey, Derek, and her 21 grandchildren and great-grandchildren, many of whom have carried on her passion for politics and public service.

Mr. Speaker, I respectfully ask that you join me in extending condolences to Dora's family and many friends and in expressing my deep appreciation for her decades of public service in her community.

RECOGNIZING MS. DIANA AMADOR, OUTSTANDING VOLUNTEER IN THE 51ST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

HON. JUAN VARGAS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 6, 2023

Mr. VARGAS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Ms. Diana Amador, outstanding women's health advocate and community volunteer in the 51st Congressional District.

Ms. Amador is being honored for her efforts to provide greater access, bring equity to, and educate the community about women's reproductive health. She is also being recognized for many other volunteer efforts on other important issues.

As a volunteer of Planned Parenthood of the Pacific Southwest, Ms. Amador provides reproductive and sexual health education to destigmatize and encourage conversation, particularly in underserved neighborhoods where these resources are not a priority or non-existent. She has also helped Planned Parenthood with several projects, including 2022 Pride Parade and the "Bans off Our Bodies" rally in May 2022.

Ms. Amador has also led a Black/Latinx AIDS project where she provided sexual education to underserved high school students, along with information on navigating higher education. She has also worked with other communities in Southern California and Mexico to bring health fairs, offer preventative care, help address food insecurity, and provide STEM education and hands-on demonstrations.

Ms. Amador is being recognized as the 51st District Constituent of the Month in August 2022, during the Day of Action for Women's Health Equity, for her selfless commitment and her positive impact to others. She is a long-time resident of National City, and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Biology with a minor in Evolutionary Medicine from the University of California, Los Angeles.

HONORING THE RIPON SOCIETY

HON. MICHAEL C. BURGESS

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, February 6, 2023

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize an important milestone in the history of The Ripon Society—the organization turned 60 this past year.

For those not familiar with the group, The Ripon Society is a public policy organization that was founded in 1962 and takes its name from the town where the Republican Party was born in 1854—Ripon, Wisconsin.
